

1

Tiny and Tomatoes

Tiny was seven years old.
She liked to eat fruits, bread and butter.
She liked cakes and biscuits.
But she did not like tomatoes.
She did not like tomato soup and tomato salad.
“I just don’t like tomatoes,” said Tiny.

One day Tiny’s teacher came to visit.
Mother served tea and tomato sandwiches.
The teacher picked up one sandwich and bit into it.
“This is very nice,” said the teacher.
“Tiny, why don’t you take a sandwich?”
Tiny could not say no to the teacher.
So she picked up one sandwich and bit into it.
“Oh,” said Tiny. “This is very nice.”
She liked it.
Since that day, Tiny has liked tomatoes.

6

A. Comprehension

1. Tick the right word.

a. One day Tiny's ..... came to visit.

- i. friend       ii. doctor       iii. teacher

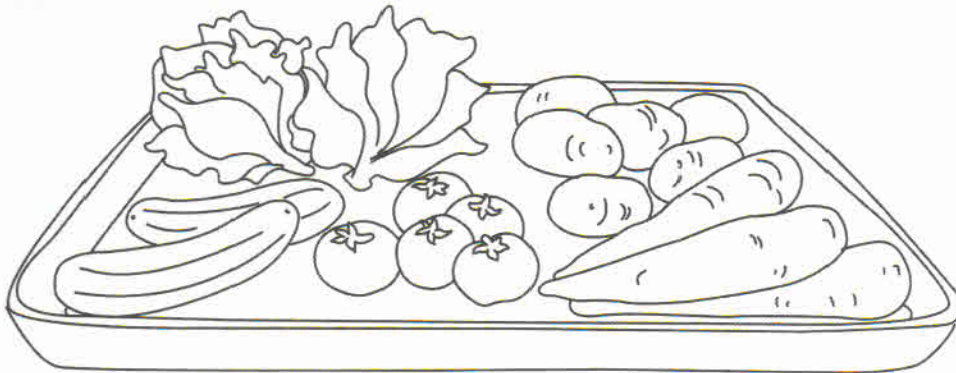

b. Mother served ..... sandwiches.

- i. tomato       ii. egg       iii. jam

c. Tiny began to like ..... sandwiches.

- i. cucumber       ii. tomato       iii. lettuce

2. Look at this tray of fruits and vegetables. Which one of these did Tiny not like? Colour it.

3. The teacher liked the sandwich. What did she say?

The teacher said, 'This is .....

4. Circle the odd one out.

- |             |         |        |         |
|-------------|---------|--------|---------|
| a. sandwich | spinach | carrot | brinjal |
| b. brother  | aunt    | sister | teacher |

B. Composition

1. Write three lines about something you like to eat.

